Vacaville, CA

EDITOR:
Please refer to the photo on page 32 of the January issue of E&S. You state that you cannot identify the first and third men from the left. I feel quite certain that the first man is Frank Jewett (he always wore glasses). The second man is, I believe, Richard Pond. The third man is Jim Ritchey. Both Dick and Jim were 1939 classmates of mine. If they aren't as I have assumed, they are at least good doubles for those two.

FREDERICK C. HOFF

Mission Viejo, CA

EDITOR:
I think that Fred Hoff's observation is correct and that I am the third from the left. I didn't have much time in those days to take part in Throop activities, because I lived in Lynwood and worked full time at nights in the Firestone factory. I can't believe I was wearing a dark suit. Thank you for writing.

JIM RITCHIE

New Canaan, CT

EDITOR:
I think I can fill in the missing persons and help sort out the names and faces in that delightful picture under the heading "For Old Times Sake," E&S, January 1984, page 32. I believe the second person from the left is David K. Beavon, BS '38, not Frank Jewett as the caption indicates. I am the first person on the left. The third from the left, above Bob Mahoney, is, I believe, Evan A. Johnson, BS '38. If I am correct, all individuals are identified.
