HALLAN N. MARSH

Mr. Marsh received his degree from Caltech in Mechanical Engineering in 1922, studied a year on a fellowship, and since 1923 has been with the General Petroleum Corporation where he is now in charge of the Production Engineering and Equipment Section.

He serves on technical advisory committees to the Petroleum Administrator for War, and for the War Production Board.

LAWRENCE A. APPLEY

Mr. Appley has been concerned with manpower problems throughout the present emergency, serving as special consultant to the Secretary of War, and now is Executive Director of the War Manpower Commission. He is on leave as vice-president of Vick Chemical Company, and formerly was noted for his work with the educational and training program of Socony Vacuum Company.

CHESTER STOCK

Dr. Stock, Professor of Paleontology at the Institute since 1926, has guided the progress of paleontological research in the western states and Mexico, and has contributed to the study of early man in America. Dr. Stock has made important fossil discoveries in the California Coast Ranges, and has conducted important field studies under a John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation fellowship.

EDWARD O. GUERRANT

Dr. Guerrant, Instructor in History at the California Institute of Technology, has made a special study of the United States foreign policy in Latin America. He has published several articles on various aspects of the Good Neighbor Policy. Each month Engineering and Science will present an article on contemporary problems by members of the Institute staff, alumni, and other qualified authors.

ENGINEERING AND SCIENCE MONTHLY is published monthly on the 25th of each month by the Alumni Association, Inc., California Institute of Technology, 1201 East California Street, Pasadena, California. Annual subscription $2.50; single copies 35 cents. Entered as second class matter at the Post Office at Pasadena, California, on September 6, 1939, under the Act of March 3, 1879.
